About PWSZ Głogów

State Higher Vocational School (PWSZ) in Głogów was established as a result of a decision by the Cabinet of Ministers on the 22nd of July 2004 and is one of the newest vocational schools in Poland.

PWSZ is located primarily within 3 buildings - one, a historical building with an area of over 8,000 sq. m., as well as two further buildings erected in the 1970s. Students have access to its classrooms, computer labs, library, convenience shop and canteen.
